Dear Cook County Board/Forest Preserve,

I am writing you to plead with you to let Rocky go to The Wild Animal Sanctuary. They have offered to transfer him at no charge to Cook County taxpayers. I understand he cannot survive in the wild, but keeping him in isolation and caged up in an enclosure is very cruel for any animal, especially one who's instincts are to be part of a family with other coyotes. Displaying him in an artificial setting is not proving the education about wild animals. To see him pace in circles is a sign he is not happy being isolated and in an artificial enclosure. Not long ago, we accepted lions and elephants in circuses. We now know how cruel that was. This is the situation Rocky is in. We have also witnessed seals, and others, kept in captivity that end up having disturbing mental behaviors. Please, please, let Rocky live a happy life with his own kind.

Thank you, in advance, for doing what is right for Rocky.

I have witnessed Rocky being by himself which is not natural for coyotes. Rocky should not have people staring at him. He needs to be at a sanctuary where he can do natural behaviors of coyotes and run freely, without a parking lot near him. Why won't they give him over to be able to live his best life? He should not be an exhibit.

Free Rocky. Send this coyote to a wildlife sanctuary. He has been caged up like a rat for too long. Do the right thing please or at least convene with a wildlife expert for advice. Don't allow cruelty in your county please.

If education and protecting wildlife are the goal of the Cook County Forest Preserve District, what better message can you send than doing the right thing and freeing Rocky from this metal enclosure. The animal ambassador program needs to be rethought with greater expert feedback and community input. One idea would be to feature farm animals from local shelters that have been saved from slaughterhouses. Other ideas include housing animals that have suffered injuries and need greater care that can be given in an open sanctuary. In any case, the animals should all have same-species companions and an ample safe, natural habitat, providing 24-hour monitoring. Rocky should serve as an example of what not to do in nature centers. I am asking along with scores of my Cook County neighbors, to please allow this sentient animal who has suffered enough to transition to the Colorado sanctuary immediately. He has served his time.

As an environmental scientist I can attest to the fact that wild animals caged in small unnatural enclosures suffer a great deal of emotional and mental stress which manifests itself in manic behaviors and even self harm. Please free Rocky to an accredited sanctuary that can properly care for him.
