Type: Partnership Agreement      Status: Approved
File created: 1/22/2015      In control: FPD Board of Commissioners
On agenda: 2/11/2015      Final action: 2/11/2015
Title: PROPOSED AGREEMENT

Vendor: Openlands, Chicago, Illinois

Request: Requesting authorization for the Forest Preserve District of Cook County (“the Preserves”) to enter into an agreement with Openlands to develop a plan for a large-scale restoration project at Deer Grove West in Palatine.

Reason: This project will facilitate restoration of valuable remnant woodland and wetland communities in the western portion of this historic site.

Situated in northwestern Cook County, Deer Grove was the first preserve acquired by the Forest Preserve District, beginning with 500 acres in 1916. Deer Grove is home to a variety of habitats, with rolling upland forest interspersed with wooded ravines and wetlands. With its long, rich history and extensive trails, the now 1,800-acre Deer Grove has attracted generations of visitors and is an ideal target for expanded restoration moving into the next century.

The plan is projected to be completed by 7/15/2015

Contract period: 2/11/2014 - 7/31/2015

Estimated Fiscal Impact: N/A
