District(s): 17

Summary: At the June 16, 2020 Board Meeting, the Forest Preserves notified the Forest Preserves Board of Commissioners that it would seek amendments to existing concession agreements to mitigate the financial impact of COVID-19. Due to restrictions implemented by the State of Illinois, Go Ape was unable to open until June 13th, as opposed to its typical opening in early March. After opening, maximum group size was reduced and limited to ten (10) for both courses. As of August 31, 2020, Go Ape's 2020 revenue has been reduced by approximately 30% from typical season revenue. In order to ensure the long-term viability of this concession enterprise, the Forest Preserves seeks authorization to reduce the vendor's 2020 gross revenue fee by 20%, or $4,000.00, for the 2020 season.
